

PHILIP KRAWITZ

- Education Educated at Herzlia High School, Philip has completed numerous Advanced Management Programmes at Harvard and Wharton, as well as the University of Cape Town.
- Business Philip is Chief Executive Officer of the Cape Union Mart Group of Companies. He has previously served as a Regional Board Member for ABSA, and as Chairman of the Cape board of the Eastern Province Building Society.
- Community involvement He serves on the Boards of many Jewish and cultural organisations such as the South African Jewish Board of Deputies Cape Council (past Chairman), United Herzlia Schools (past Chairman and current Trustee), United Jewish Campaign (Trustee) and Ikamva Labantu (Trustee). He has also previously served on the Boards of Capab and the Cape Town Symphony Orchestra.
- Philip delivers numerous public addresses and has been a guest lecturer at UCT for the past two decades.
- Family Philip is married to Michele, has three daughters and four grandchildren.
- Awards He is a recipient of numerous awards including the Cape Times Businessman of the Year, the Lexus Lifetime Jewish Achiever Award and the Cape Town Business Chamber/Die Burger Business Leader of the Year.